My Friend Fernando Mr Alfonso Autrey Camino

It has taken me over four years to complete this biography of my dear brother Fernando Marcelino Camino and now it is finally ready for publication. I have read parts of it to friends and been heartened that the book seems to communicate the warmth and friendliness of his personality and the non-stop tears and laughter that mark Fernando's lifetime of adventure. The book also highlights important periods in Fernando's life such as his world travels as a young child, his years at Palo Verde High in Tucson, Arizona, his time as manager of the El Torito restaurant (while at the same time attending the UofA in Tucson) and the summers spent in Kootenay Lake, Canada. I have also added two sections of photographs, letters and all of the Memorial Messages that were posted to his online guest book. Hopefully the book will be welcomed by family and friends alike. This is for you.
