We humans have always found the behavior of animals fascinating, interesting and often extremely entertaining. But which animals in the world come top of the class when it comes to sheer brain power and intelligence? Some of the obvious species that come readily to mind are the primates – for example, chimpanzees and orangutans. But there are other, far lesser known animals, insects and marine life that possess astounding powers of reasoning - and even emotions - that are both unexpected and astonishing. For example, did you know that cows make enemies and bear grudges?
