Ghost Towns Of The Colorado Rockies

Ghost Towns Of The Colorado Rockies

Western American History. Over the past several years, there has been a serious, growing interest in seeking out the multiplicity of ghost towns and old mining camps that still stand today among the high peaks of the Colorado Rockies. Colorado's several mineral rushes have laid the foundations for much that has happened here in the Centennial State in the twentieth century, and in the process of searching for the countless deposits of precious metals, something over four hundred towns were started.
