Gustave Flaubert, pessimist and master of cadenced lyric prose, urged young writers to lead ascetic lives that in their art they might be violent. Chopin's violence was psychic, a travailing and groaning of the spirit; the bright roughness of adventure was missing from his quotidian existence. The tragedy was within. One recalls Maurice Maeterlinck: "Whereas most of our life is passed far from blood, cries and swords, and the tears of men have become silent, invisible and almost spiritual."

In the modern era like currently, many ways to get book that you just wanted.

Deborah Fishman:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or make summary for some book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart or real their interest. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Chopin: The Man and His Music can make you sense more interested to read.
