Tommy Callahan was a rough kid, constantly getting into fights with the neighborhood boys

Growing up was rough on 7 year old Tommy, and as it turned out aggression was a form of expression he knew all too well, from his abusive father.

Next door neighbor and best friend, Little Gracie Smith was always there for him, aiding to his wounds with band-aids

Having witnessed a beating of her best friend and reporting it to her mother, Grace lived with years of guilt after Tom was removed from his home by the state.

15 years later Tommy returns, now a Navy SEAL, to clear out his father's home after his recent passing

Gracie goes over to inquire as to the strange man at her neighbors door, only to realize little Tommy has returned a tall, dark, and terribly handsome man and an attraction instantly ignites between the two of them.

Now a nurse, Gracie finds she has some healing of her own to do, after years of guilt finally gets a chance at resolution.

This is a clean love story with two people finding themselves in the most unusual of ways. And above all, each finding their way through the love of God, Christianity, and having faith.
