To asterisk, or not to asterisk, that is the question. Maybe even a more important question is whether players like Barry Bonds and Mark McGwire should be welcomed to Cooperstown or forever banished from baseball paradise. Does an asterisk belong on 73*? Do asterisks belong on the records of all players who used PEDs? These are arguably the most controversial baseball questions and have haunted Major League Baseball for over a decade. This book provides answers to these questions and through statistical analysis finally answers the question, “How many homeruns players who allegedly used PEDs would have hit absent steroids?”
