David Hollow and the Guards of the Rim I (David Hollow Trilogy Book 1) Ryan Christensen

David Hollow is turning fifteen years old. On the day of his birthday he will be given the gun. He will watch his parents die. And he will be sent on an epic quest that will expose the truth lurking beneath the war—a war where mankind has forever fought the Enemy south of the Rim. David Hollow and the Guards of the Rim opens up a world of political intrigue not unlike our own, where men are soldiers and children's futures are revealed by the King's fortune-tellers in an effort to find one boy. One boy who will change everything. And David Hollow's destiny is unfolding into legend, for he was born of a prophecy that put a mark over his heart and a price on his head. Will he reveal his purpose in the prophecy before it's too late? Guards of the Rim follows in the tradition of Stephen King's The Dark Tower and George RR Martin's A Song of Ice and Fire where unforgettable heroes battle insidious villains in a melee that will ultimately shake the very foundations of the world. Of all worlds. The adventure has just begun!
