Escaping the Lyme Inferno: Memoirs of Lyme Disease and other Medical Miseries Eric Karlan

This book is a collection of stories about men, women, and children struggling to regain their health from Lyme disease and other tick-borne illnesses. There is Sage, who was repeatedly told she was losing her mind as her health rapidly declined. There is James, who was diagnosed with MS. There is Alexandra, whose son Mike had ADHD and a multitude of other health issues. And there is Ann, who was taking over two dozen prescription drugs at one point for all her diagnoses. There was one insidious culprit behind all of their suffering: Lyme disease and related tick-borne illnesses. These memoirs recount the stories of Lyme disease survivors who had to become their own advocates to start their journeys of healing.
