Don't Get Me Started, We'll Be Here All Day: (further adventures of a confused middle aged teenager) (Confused Sixties Childhood Book 5) Alex Cotton

Alex is back and this time she's mad!

Now a middle aged teenager she is still trying to cope with life while at the same time dealing with the things that drive her nuts on a daily basis.

Join her on a trip through her top twenty rants, from a snoring husband to a deaf incontinent bulldog, mammograms, mothers, menopause and more.

She's still confused, but now she's angry too!

"My husband said he didn't mind waking up to a pair of boobs, just as long as they weren't his".

"Everyone agreed, my finger resembled a penis".

"We still remind my niece about the time she killed our next door neighbour"

From the author of the "Confused Sixties and Seventies Childhood".
