Greg had had a terrible life. He was a loner, had never been intimate with a girl and his father was abusive to not only Greg, but his mother. When his father discovered Greg liked to wear women's clothing, he became even more of a "dictator." All that changed when Greg met Kris and Jenny.

"Kris was bursting with excitement as we went into the closet and picked out a few items. I chose a black pencil skirt with a white pull over sweater, black 3-inch heels and patterned black hose. The girls excused themselves and I quickly dressed. After what seemed like minutes, but was actually a half an hour, I opened the door and Jenny went to work. When she finished I again was amazed at my own reflection.

I sat there staring at the mirror for a few moments before Jenny broke the silence.

"Hey I have an idea, why don't we go out to lunch?"

I looked at Jenny with a frozen look on my face.

"Like this?"

"Nobody will ever recognize you," Jenny replied. I didn't think this was a good idea.

"Don't you realize how hot you look?" Kris exclaimed. With that one comment I found the courage to do it.

From Author Dani Mitchell -- "While most of the story is fiction, some is VERY real. The abuse suffered by my Mom and my family, was very, very real. While the story has a far more different ending than real life, please, if you are aware of someone in an abusive relationship, don't just sit by and do nothing. As a family, we were fortunate to not have a tragic outcome, but someone else may not be as lucky..." Love, Dani
