Paradojas de La Condicion Humana (Spanish Edition) Marisel Somale

Tesis de maestría del año 2013 en el tema Inglés - Literatura, trabajos, , Materia: Maestría en Humanidades y Ciencias, Idioma: Español, Resumen: El presente trabajo apunta a mostrar a través del seguimiento comparativo de un recurso estilístico prestigioso -la metáfora - el extraño despliegue de búsqueda, conocimiento y descenso en la condición humana que Joseph Conrad, en "Heart of Darkness", y Eustasio Rivera, en "La Vorágine", llevan adelante desde la complejidad de dos viajes que tienen lugar en geografías diversas si bien análogas en el exotismo devorador de la selva y sus habitantes, y en su inesperada, extraña fascinación. Las metáforas referidas al tema del viaje, la selva, los esclavos y la voracidad humana se estudian a partir de su organización siguiendo tres planos: conceptual, gramatical y retórico. La observación cuidadosa de la predicación metafórica en "Heart of Darkness" y en "La Vorágine" intenta encontrar y ofrecer claves interpretativas que arrojen datos relevantes vinculados con el estilo literario que caracteriza a Conrad y Rivera a fin de destacar la maestría artística de ambos autores, quienes invitan al lector a sumergirse en su propia experiencia de auto-conocimiento y reflexión sobre la condición humana.
