Carnal Christian or Fruitful Disciple: Is it possible for someone to be born again, but to have not yet made the transition to become a true disciple of Christ? Brian Loock

For a number of years now I have been thinking about what it really means to be a true disciple of Jesus Christ. Are all born-again Christians automatically true disciples of Christ – or not? Is it possible that someone can be born again and filled with the Holy Spirit and yet still not be a true disciple of Jesus? Is it at all possible for someone to have received eternal life, but not yet made the transition to become a genuine disciple of Christ?

The contents of this book will help answer these questions. Father's view of what a true disciple of Christ looks like is really quite simple, but at the same time very profound. Scripture reveals this view to us very clearly without any ambiguity.

I believe that I would be doing you a great dis-service if all I did was show you what a true disciple of Christ looked like without also sharing with you how you can become one. I have therefore endeavored to show as clearly as I know how by Father's grace some of the simple, fundamental truths that you can apply to your life to help you on your journey to become a true disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus said:

“Go therefore and make disciples of all nations.....teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you.....” (Mat 28:19a, 20a)

We are called not just to be “born again” in order to escape hell; not just to receive forgiveness of sins; not just to enjoy the benefits of being a child of God; not just to enjoy the promises of our Father - but to move on from there to become followers of Christ - those who submit to His Lordship and who grow to become mature sons of God – and true Disciples of Christ. The world is waiting in anticipation for the manifestation of the mature sons of God..... I trust that you also will be found in that company.
