There are various studies that speak about how many words women use in a day and how many men use. My favorite says men use about twenty five thousand words a day whereas women consistently use seventy five thousand. This book is my answer: my really funny, long and wordy answer to my husband's question, "What did you do all day?" I hope you, the reader, enjoy this answer, but mostly, I'm hoping husbands everywhere might finally get the picture.
