Keeping Maree: A Breast Cancer Journey Michael Leddin

I fell to my knees and hammered the ground with my fist until I drew blood. 'Quit destroying what she loves', I pleaded. 'Her marriage. Her kids. We need her. We've learned from this experience. Please, please just change this day'. As a young child, Maree watched in confusion and sadness as her loving mother fought, and ultimately lost, her battle with breast cancer. This incomparable loss drew Maree and her older brother Mick close in a powerful lifelong bond, neither aware that in years to come Mick would once again be by Maree's side as she fought her own battle. At the age of thirty-one, Maree Leddin was diagnosed with breast cancer. She displayed phenomenal mental strength in refusing to give into the disease. She had lost her own mother, and she was determined that her own children would not go through the same thing. Utterly committed to beating the odds, she endured countless treatments, multiple recurrences of the cancer, and immense pain, surviving--and living life to the full--for a remarkable nineteen years before her body said enough. Through the eyes and words of an adoring son, we see what this remarkable, loving family did to keep Maree.
