Betrayal Jaime Goza

A young mother struggles with her husband's infidelities, as her family is threatened by supernatural forces, her faith is tested mentally and physically, leading her to make the ultimate decision for their eternal future. Anne is a young mother with two young children. Her husband works out of town and is gone constantly. When she finds evidence that he has been cheating on her, she leaves their home and takes the children and their nanny and moves away, without informing her husband. Even though she has always lived in the city, she buys a house in the country side of Colorado. The house she found was a steal, which made it irresistible. The family finds that they are confused by the nightly noises and activities that come along with the new house. When Anne's husband finds them, her faith is tested, both physically and mentally. Anne finds that she has to make a decision that will dictate where she and her family will spend eternity.
