Siren Song: A Different Scandinavian Crime Novel (Detective Lena Franke Series, Book #1) Erik Boman

 This is the first book in the Detective Lena Franke series. ***

John's girlfriend is brutally murdered moments before he arrives at her flat in a Stockholm suburb. The killer flees into the blizzard and leaves John behind, stricken by grief and denial. But instead of breaking John, the shock cuts his soul apart.

One part of him remains conscious and goes on a ruthless, calculated manhunt unlike anything the police has ever seen. Because John's waking self is bent on revenge – at any price.

At the same time, another part of John plummets into a private hell, a maze that he and an enigmatic guide desperately try to escape from.

As Detective Lena Franke is following in John's footsteps, she finds more questions than answers as she tracks his violent passage through Stockholm's winter streets.

And Lena's sanity hinges on this mission: burdened by a dark past, her chance for redemption rests with saving John – if she can't find him before she falls apart, John is truly lost.

 Book 2 in Detective Lena Franke Series (Summer Nights) is available now ***

 Book 3 in Detective Lena Franke Series will be out in 2016 ***

Erik Boman lives in Oxford. He is the author of "Siren Song", "Summer Nights", "Southbound", and the short story collection "Short Cuts". In 2011 he was awarded the A.M. Heath literary prize.
