To secure the funds for her twin sister's surgery, Farah Smith will need to sacrifice her values as well as alter her appearance to work for a man she finds morally bankrupt. With a blonde wig and stilettos strapped on, Farah's a clone of Keller Donovan's harem of past assistants, insuring a position within his company. The moment Farah and Keller meet, she realizes her most daunting task isn't the job, but fighting an attraction to a man whose ruthlessness is as legendary in the bedroom as it is in the boardroom. Disillusioned by his parent's disastrous marriage, Keller Donovan is determined no relationship should have more than a six-month shelf life. But after he meets Farah Smith, all bets are off. Suddenly he wants more than a personal assistant and private bed warmer. Unfortunately, his offer of an affair doesn't sit well with her, despite the stranglehold she's put on his heart. Can Farah and Keller find happiness and love over deceit and libido? Will the two embrace each other or hold fast to past history?
